

CRITIQUE THREE OTHER NON-FICTION PRESENTATIONS

What is a critique?

A critique is used to analyze, describe, and interpret works.

Why am I critiquing my classmates' Google Slideshow?

Critiquing others' works for this project will help you gather information and possibly lead you to become interested in other books already read by your classmates. The focus of this project is understanding the difference between non-fiction and fiction texts and characteristics.

TIPS while critiquing:

Refrain from using words like "beautiful" or "ugly" when critiquing others' works. This is a process of collaboration and is being utilized for you to learn new ideas. Do not judge or be overly critical.

PRESENTATION #1

Name of student that designed presentation:

Title of book and author name found on presentation:

What made you choose this presentation to critique? (ie: Elizabeth is my friend; I wanted to see her project or I noticed the title of their book was Death and Dying and am interested in the same topic...)_____

List at least 2-3 facts found within the presentation:

Are the images within the presentation appropriate for subject or do they hinder the presentation? (Explain):

Does this presentation or subject area interest you in any way? Why or why not? Will you decide to delve further into the learning process? Explain.

Additional comments concerning this presentation:

PRESENTATION #2

Name of student that designed presentation:

Title of book and author name found on presentation:

What made you choose this presentation to critique? (ie: Elizabeth is my friend; I wanted to see her project or I noticed the title of their book was Death and Dying and am interested in the same topic...)_____

List at least 2-3 facts found within the presentation:

Are the images within the presentation appropriate for subject or do they hinder the presentation? (Explain):

Does this presentation or subject area interest you in any way? Why or why not? Will you decide to delve further into the learning process? Explain.

Additional comments concerning this presentation:

PRESENTATION #3

Name of student that designed presentation:

Title of book and author name found on presentation:

What made you choose this presentation to critique? (ie: Elizabeth is my friend; I wanted to see her project or I noticed the title of their book was Death and Dying and am interested in the same topic...)_____

List at least 2-3 facts found within the presentation:

Are the images within the presentation appropriate for subject or do they hinder the presentation? (Explain):

Does this presentation or subject area interest you in any way? Why or why not? Will you decide to delve further into the learning process? Explain.

Additional comments concerning this presentation:
